NDUGA- The Infantry Battalion Task Force Para Raider 432/Waspada Setia Jaya Kostrad, a key unit of the HABEMA Operational Command in Papua, continues its impactful mission in the RI-PNG border area, specifically in Nduga Regency, Papua Highlands Province. On Friday, January 10, 2025, the Mbuwa Post, led by First Lieutenant Fahrizal Himmi Fau, carried out Social Communication activities as part of their regional security duties, marked by the distribution of essential goods to the residents of Mbuwa Village.

The Commander of the 432 Task Force, Lieutenant Colonel Zulfikar Akbar Helmi, underscored the importance of addressing the basic needs of the local communities within their operational jurisdiction. “This initiative is a way to express our gratitude as we celebrate the anniversary of our beloved unit. We hope the 432 Task Force continues to excel and is granted strength to fulfill its mission of serving the nation and the state,” shared 1LT Fahrizal.

Heartwarming Response from the Community

The act of kindness was met with overwhelming joy from the local residents. Their smiles and heartfelt words of appreciation spoke volumes about the impact of the gesture. Yones Gwijangge, a respected elder in Mbuwa Village, shared his gratitude, saying, “Praise the Lord, Commander 432. Thank you for the essential goods. God bless you.”

A Commitment to Development and Welfare

Brigadier General Lucky Avianto, Commander of HABEMA, lauded the efforts of the 432 Task Force in supporting the local community. “This initiative demonstrates the TNI’s dedication to addressing basic needs while contributing to the accelerated development of Papua. It reflects our commitment to fostering welfare and unity among the people,” he stated.

Building Bridges of Trust

The event highlighted the harmonious relationship between the TNI and the local community, showcasing how acts of goodwill can bridge gaps and strengthen trust. The 432 Task Force's commitment to their duties extends beyond security; it includes fostering a spirit of collaboration and care among the people they serve.

With every smile and word of gratitude received, the HABEMA Task Force reiterates its mission to create a safer, more supportive environment in Papua, ensuring no one is left behind.
